Lee Co.

Tweed, Blankenship, Franklin, Gentry

CA-Divorce

T-Migration

Vices

To the Honorable H. A. W. Skeen,

Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia.

Your orator, Solomon Stanton, humbly complaining ~~would~~ show unto your Honor that he was lawfully married on February 10th, 1880, in the county of Madison and state of North Carolina to one Hester J. Tweed; that he lived with her as her lawful and dutiful husband until on or about January 1st, 1897; that at said time his said wife abandoned him, and from that time until the present time has refused to live with him and has continued apart from him. Your orator at that time moved to the state of Texas and provided a home and the means for his said wife to follow him, but she ^{refused and} did not do so. Subsequently, your orator removed to the county of Lee, state of Virginia, where he now resides and where he has resided for more than twelve months prior to the institution of this suit.

Since your orator has been separated from his said wife, he has learned what he did not know before, that she was guilty of adultery, and he now states and charges that in the month of September, ^{or Oct} 1897, in the said county of Madison and state of North Carolina at or near their said home behind the barn at said place while your orator was absent from home, she was guilty of adultery with a man who resided in that neighborhood. He further states and charges that about the last of ^{or Oct} September, ^{Sept} 1897, ~~or the first of January, 1897,~~ she was at their said home in said county also guilty of adultery and was seen in bed with a man residing in said neighborhood, while your orator was absent. He further states and charges that

and various other times
about June, 1898, in said neighborhood she was again guilty of adultery, having been seen riding for adulterous purposes behind her paramour one night on horseback.

Your orator states that he had no knowledge at the time and not until long afterwards of said acts of adultery; that he did not connive or procure the same; that he has not co-habited with his said wife since knowledge of said adulterous acts has come to him; and has not co-habited with her within the ~~xxx~~ the three years last occurring prior to the bringing of this suit. His said wife is not now, and never has been, a resident of the state of Virginia.

WHEREFORE, being without remedy save in a court of equity the prayer of your orator is: that the said Hester J. Stanton be made a party defendant to this bill and be required to answer the same, but not on oath; that order of publication may issue against her; and upon a hearing hereof, that your Honor will dissolve the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between your orator and said defendant; and for such other and further and general relief as to equity may seem meet, your orator will ever pray &c.
